H-E-B FORSAKES CHRISTIAN VALUES, PROMOTES HOMOSEXUAL AGENDA

On Saturday, June 17, 2006, much to the disappointment of loyal customers throughout South Texas, H-E-B turned its back on its Christian heritage and chose to sponsor the San Antonio Homosexual PrideFest at Hemisfair Park from 3-11 p.m. For the second year in a row, just like they've done in Austin for the last two years as well.

H-E-B sent an e-mail to hundreds of Christians, saying, "We received your e-mail regarding our participation and the participation of other corporations and banks in the upcoming Gay Pride Festival. H-E-B received a request for a small donation for the event; the request was reviewed and approved by our Regional Diversity Council. We realize that you are unhappy with us about this but we hope you will take into consideration that we contribute to over 5,000 non-profit groups of all kinds across the state of Texas annually."

The San Antonio Express-News story by Tracy Hamilton on June 17th noted that H-E-B was unapologetic about their support of the homosexual agenda. Winell Herron, a spokeswoman with H-E-B, said the company would not be asking for its money back despite a flood of complaints.

TAKE A STAND ACTION STEPS:

- 1. Between now and July 31st, please save ALL of your receipts when you shop at stores like Wal-Mart, CostCo, Handy Andy's, and Albertson's. Staple your receipts together and write the TOTAL on the first one and send them to: KSLR Talk Show Host Adam McManus, 9601 McAllister Freeway, Suite 1200, San Antonio, Texas 78216. Send them no later than Wednesday, August 2nd. We will show H-E-B how much money they have lost by promoting the radical homosexual agenda and turning their back on Texas Christian families. McManus will hold a press conference and present the grand total.
- 2. If you choose to continue to shop at H-E-B, ask to speak to the on-site manager and complain in a polite, yet firm way about the corporate decision to push the homosexual agenda.
- 3. Contact H-E-B and object to their decision to promote the illicit, immoral, unnatural homosexual lifestyle. Charles Butt, H. E. Butt Grocery Company, P.O.
